

Discussion Questions – Adam Dreamer

Read Genesis 2:4-4

- Why does the first chapter of Genesis through Gen 2:3 speak of “God” and then switch to “Lord, God” in Gen 2:4?
- Is it plausible for people to be created from dust?
- When writers talk about the Adam dream, what are they talking about? [Gen 2:21 talks about Adam being put to sleep]
- Can you find anywhere in Genesis that Adam ever woke up?
- If he didn’t wake up, what was Eve? The serpent? The expulsion from the garden? Cain and Abel’s offerings and result?
- Why do you think two creation stories are listed?
- Would you spend time talking to a snake?
- What did the serpent look like when it talked to Eve, since the penalty imposed on it was to slither in the dust? Did the serpent walk before that time?
- How does the second “creation story” depict God? [man-like]
- Which creation do you most identify with and why?
- Is there more than one creation? [NO!]
- What is the first sin? [disobedience?]
- Why is the first sin attributed to Adam?
- Why is obedience to God so important?
- How do you obey God?
