Selfless Giving

Jesus tells us the importance of selflessly giving to others. The sentences below describe several Bible characters who put the needs of others above their own (Matthew 6:1-4).

Fill in the blanks to complete each description, and then circle the underlined words in the word search.

Four friends made an opening in the roof so their paralyzed friend could see Jesus

Ruth stayed with her widowed mother-in-law, Naomi, instead of returning to her own family.

When a man asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus told the parable of the Good Samaritan, who helped an injured man he met on the road.

When a crippled beggar at the temple gate asked Peter and John for money, Peter said, "silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Narazeth, walk."
