

Underground City

The people of Cappadocia created an underground city. Using your imagination decorate the different rooms with what you think the city would look like during biblical times.

