1. The people of Pergamum worship many gods and goddesses, and build statues of what they might look like. The statues provide a place where the people can worship and make sacrifices to these gods and goddesses. We believe in one, almighty God that we cannot see; yet, we feel God's goodness, love, presence, and supreme power. In your own words, describe God. How does God make you feel? What does God do for you, and for your family?
2. A relief is a band of sculptures carved into a stor like a cartoon strip. Pretend the rectangle belochurch. Draw pictures that show what you like as if you were sculpting a relief.	ow is a wall in your
